INTRODUCTION

Indian Institute of Chemical Engineers (IICChE) – Mumbai Regional Centre (MRC) introduced for the first time, an event known as Outstanding Young Chemical Engineers (OYCE) in the year 2005 to broaden the horizons of thought and its potential innovative candidacy of the developing crop of Chemical Engineers. The prizes for the competition have been sponsored by Blast Carboblocks & ThyssenKrupp Industrial Solutions right from the inception of the event. After the immense success of the earlier ventures, IICChE-MRC is pleased to announce the 14th annual session of OYCE.

Indian Institute Of Chemical Engineers (IICChE) – Mumbai Regional Centre

Indian Institute Of Chemical Engineers (IICChE) is a confluence of streams of professionals from academia, research and industry. It provides an appropriate forum for joint endeavours, hand-in-hand to work through applications of Chemical Engineering and Allied Sciences. IICChE – MRC is one of the 33 regional centres of the Indian Institute of Chemical Engineers (IICChE), the apex of professional society of Chemical Engineers in India.
